Chosen By God The Doctrine

To sum it up dear brother: the doctrine that God has chosen some people to save over some others that He allegedly has not chosen is a very convenient but also very false doctrine. God's choice, will, is that everybody gets saved and comes to the knowledge of the truth. If this is God's choice for everybody what is then everybody?

Chosen by God: a look at the doctrine of predestination

It is for all biblical Christians. In this updated and expanded edition of Chosen by God, Sproul shows that the doctrine of predestination doesn't create a whimsical or spiteful picture of God, but paints the portrait of a loving God who provides redemption for radically corrupt humans. There is mystery in God's ways, but not contradiction.

"God Has Chosen is a brilliant contribution to a biblically grounded, historically sensitive, and theologically generous vision of election. May Lindsay's plea for a more expansive and comprehensive understanding of the doctrine find a wide readership and warm reception in the academy and in the church."

God Has Chosen: The Doctrine of Election Through Christian ...

Chosen by God: The Doctrine of Unconditional Election. Brian Schwertley. One of the fundamental doctrines that underlie the biblical teaching that men are saved by the grace of God alone is the doctrine of election. The doctrine of election refers to God's choice of a certain number of people out of fallen humanity who in history would receive all the merits of Christ's redemptive work and thus be truly, actually and eternally saved.

Chosen by God: The Doctrine of Unconditional Election

Chosen by God Many people reject Reformed theology or Calvinism because they believe it teaches that God drags people kicking and screaming into the church against their will. This, however, is a gross distortion of the biblical doctrine of election, which is grounded in God's love for His people.

Among the traditional tenets of the Christian faith is the belief that God chooses or elects people for salvation. For some Christians, such an affirmation is an indication of God's sovereign and perfect will. For others, such a notion is troubling for it seems to downplay the significance of human agency and choice.

God Has Chosen: The Doctrine of Election through Christian ...

An election is a choice. The biblical doctrine of election teaches that God chooses to save some, and, by necessity, if He does not choose everyone, then there are some who are passed over. Those whom He has chosen to save are referred to as " the elect " (see, e.g., Mark 13:20).

Tyndale | Chosen by God

The following is a brief discussion of what I understand the biblical doctrine of election to mean. (1) Election does not mean that God merely knew who would believe and on that basis elected them. D. L. Moody thought that election meant this: "God chose me for himself, but the devil chose me for himself. My choice is the tie-breaker."
