"Melusine" requires the same sort of attention as Tolkein, though with far fewer characters, it's less confusing than that. And, like in real life, some characters are important for a short time and then wander off to do their own thing or, as somebody said, "are discarded" by the author.

Melusine - ThriftBooks

The Doctrine of Labyrinths is a series of four fantasy novels by Sarah Monette, largely featuring the incredibly dysfunctional Lord Felix Harrowgate, a very powerful wizard who nearly managed to put his baseborn past and unsavory history behind him, and his equally-dysfunctional younger brother Mildmay, whose personality is just as fractured and whose past is just as dismal.
